

WEB QUEST #3 - EDUCATION

You can learn more about colleges and adult education programs in Maine and elsewhere through a Web Quest. You can use Google or any other search engine to find the websites of colleges of interest to you.

Your local Adult Education program can be found by searching for your local school district and then choosing Adult Education. Or check out <http://www.maineadulted.org/>. Each Adult Education program has a web page on this website.

The College Board website is a good resource for detailed information about colleges. Go to <http://www.collegeboard.org/> and click on College Search. You can also start your search at <http://www.famemaine.com/>.

1. School name: _____

Web address: _____

Academic programs to consider: _____

Are online classes available? _____

Tuition per credit hour: _____

Application fee: _____

Admissions office phone number: _____

Notes: _____

2. School name: _____

Web address: _____

Academic programs to consider: _____

Are online classes available? _____

Tuition per credit hour: _____

Application fee: _____

Admissions office phone number: _____

Notes: _____
